

NONPROFIT ELIGIBILITY

- Organization must be a 501(c)(3) public charity and have received a ruling letter from the IRS stating the entity is a qualified recipient of tax-deductible gifts.
 - An organization cannot have a Give For Good profile if it has not completed the process with the IRS to receive 501(c)(3) public charity status.
 - An organization will also need to be current in its filings with the Louisiana Secretary of State.
- Organization must have a physical address in one or more of the following 14 parishes: Bienville, Bossier, Caddo, Claiborne, DeSoto, Jackson, Lincoln, Morehouse, Natchitoches, Ouachita, Red River, Sabine, Union, or Webster. Organizations must also provide services in one or more of these parishes.
 - If an organization's primary operating address is outside of, but primarily serves the 14-parish area, then this organization must provide documentation showing that within the operating budget, at least 50% of expenses serve the 14-parish area.
 - If an organization's primary operating address is in the 14-parish area, but its primary service area is national or international; then the organization must provide documentation showing that within the operating budget, at least 50% of expenses serve the 14-parish area.
- Umbrella or pass-through organizations are not eligible for participation.
- Funds raised through Give For Good must be used for services in the 14 parishes listed above.
- One organization per tax identification number is eligible to participate. Organizations with multiple programs must register under one name and cannot register each program separately.
 - For example, an eligible organization operates a food pantry in one location and a youth center at another, both under the same federal tax ID number. The organization is allowed one Give For Good profile. Under the organizational description the organization may highlight both programs, but donors cannot restrict their donations to a particular program through Give For Good.
- The Community Foundation of North Louisiana has final discretion in approving organizations for participation.

For questions regarding eligibility, please contact Emily Smith at smith@cfnla.org or 318-221-0582.